CODE OF ETHICS

To ensure a consultation that nurtures and encourages the dignity and goodness of each person to achieve a fulfilling lifestyle.

To encourage clients to value their heritage and the cultural richness that enhances their life and adds to the uniqueness and difference.

To show my vocation by application and to acquire an excellent reputation for quality and personal service to clients.

To stimulate and challenge clients to recognize their gifts and talents in order for them to move forward in all spheres of life.

To seek professional excellence and to assure clients that if a query arises I will seek to swiftly resolve any outstanding issues.

To be careful with my vision and generous with my support for clients, to build up and not to destroy self confidence in each person.

what you feel you attract,
what you imagine you become”

Abbey Rose is a well known and highly respected clairvoyant in Melbourne. She offers genuine tarot readings face to face, by email or telephone.
